PRETTY AS A PICTURE

Add a touch of romance to summer containers with Calibrachoa 'PinkTastic' – an enchanting double-flowered annual. Contrast with a delicate white-flowered trailer, like bacopa or lobelia, and a striking purple-leaved heuchera.

MAKE TIME TO...

FEED PLANTS IN POTS

A fast-acting liquid feed such as Miracle-Gro All Purpose Plant Food can give results in a week.

WATER WELL

Save water by aiming it at your plants' roots, not the leaves.

STAKE & SUPPORT

Put stakes in place before border plants become too tall and bushy.

IDEAL FOR CUTTING

HELIANTHUS 'SUNFINITY' LET THE SUN SHINE

Looking for a big, bold burst of colour in a bed or border? This multi-branched sunflower (available from June) will bloom all summer long with a procession of sunshine-yellow, insect-friendly flowers. Snip off dead and fading flowerheads to keep those blooms coming.

Simple flower tips

Use bedding plants, dahlias and potted lilies to fill gaps in mixed flower borders. Deadhead roses and petunias, and remove faded spikes of lupins for a flush of new flowers.

MAKE A STATEMENT

Bring an exotic touch to your summer garden with a sun-loving Cordyline 'Torbay Dazzler'. Pop one into a large contemporary patio planter, or use two by the front door for a grand entrance.

HERE COME THE GIRLS!

Super-versatile, these five elegant Bella Fuchsias® can be grown in full sun or part-shade. Add semi-trailing Sophia or Nora to hanging baskets and wall-mounted planters, and use upright bushy varieties Evita, Mariska and Miranda in pots, beds and borders.

Time to pick and mix

Have fun with pots and borders this summer with a colourful selection of mix and match flowers

Available from May, bedding plants also make great border gap-fillers: here, Osteospermum 'Magic Yellow' is planted alongside hardy perennials such as alliums and Geranium 'Rozanne'

The wonderful thing about plants for pots and seasonal borders is that you can pick and mix to your heart's content, playing around with different colour combinations until you achieve the effect you want. In fact, look on bedding plants as 'seasonal accessories' and don't be afraid to use them to add a splash of colour or a dash of drama to patio pots, window boxes and summer beds. If you're not sure where to begin, start with between three and five different plants in each pot or trough, combining one or two upright, bushy plants with fast-growing trailing varieties to gently drape over the edges.

Sweet treats

Combining the very best features of two patio favourites – petunia and calibrachoa – Petchoa

BeautiCal is an exciting new addition to your summer bedding repertoire. Soft mounds of large, long-lasting, colourful flowers recover quickly from summer rain, making them ideal for containers and hanging baskets in a sunny spot. Clockwise from top left: 'French Vanilla', 'Caramel Yellow', 'Cinnamon', 'Bordeaux' and 'Sunray Pink'.

BERRY NICE!

We love the dainty scented flowers of nemesia and now one of our favourite varieties is better than ever. Nemesia 'Berries & Cream Improved' has pretty bi-coloured flowers in blackcurrant and vanilla, and it's more fragrant, too.

PLANTING PARTNERS MADE EASY

For a simple summer pot 'recipe', combine three different flower shapes and use colours that bring out the best in each other. Here, we've used nemesia, osteospermum and petunia to create two fresh and fruity combinations.

PINK & YELLOW

Nemesia* 'Ayana' – charming bi-coloured flowers in sugar pink
Osteospermum* 'Magic Yellow' – a cheerful sun-loving daisy
Pink petunias – we have a selection of upright and trailing varieties in store

PURPLE & GOLD

Nemesia* 'Evening Dusk' – miniature orchid-like flowers in purple and pink
Osteospermum* 'Purple Sun' – easy to grow with a dazzling purple-pink centre
Petunia* 'Banana Candy' – early-flowering and weather-resistant

PLANT PROFILE

When the sun is out, you want pots and containers that burst with colour and Calliope geraniums are a gardener's summer saviour. Easy to care for and not too thirsty, Calliope geraniums retain their intense colours – even when grown in direct sun. They also blend easily into any garden style: team with terracotta for a classic Mediterranean look; go contemporary in a modern monochrome pot; or plant out in a bed or border for a soft cottage-garden effect.

CALLIOPE GERANIUMS GIVE:

- superior performance
- larger, fuller flowers compared to traditional geraniums
- excellent weather tolerance
- non-fading, vibrant flowers

EXCLUSIVE 2019 VARIETY

We're particularly excited about our exclusive 2019 variety – Calliope 'Hot Pink'. With big, velvety flowerheads in lipstick-pink, it will be featured at this year's Gardeners' World Live. Plant Calliope 'Hot Pink' geraniums among other summer border flowers or contrast with foliage plants, like shimmering grasses and sun-loving sedums.

REMEMBER TO...

Use quality container compost when planting Calliope geraniums in pots and hanging baskets – Miracle Gro Moisture Control compost contains six months' feed and retains water well.

Add a slow-release fertiliser, like Miracle Gro All Purpose Continuous Release Plant Food for bigger, bolder flowers.

Water well when planting, and during very hot spells.

Remove dead and fading flowers to encourage fresh, new blooms.

Lovely lavender

The scented spikes of English lavender flower for many weeks. Try combining our favourite compact varieties: 'Munstead' (violet-blue) and 'Hidcote' (mid-blue).

Some of the boldest border plants are summer-flowering perennials that will happily flower for weeks, and even months, at a time. Many of them come in sizzling-hot shades of scarlet, orange and coral pink which look their best in bright summer sun. These hot colours are natural attention-seekers and will pull the eye to beds and borders where the summer flower show is still going strong.

For balance, you can contrast these fiery show-stoppers with cooler shades of lilac-blue, indigo and lime-green. And for impact, try combining different flower shapes – from the cheerful daisies of geum and leucanthemum to the elegant spires of foxgloves and adenophora.
